BACKGROUND INFORMATION

STANDBY GUARDIANSHIPS

(pertains only to infants; does not include 17A's)

SCPA §1726

STANDBY GUARDIAN: Definition - for purposes of this proceeding a person judicially appointed pursuant to SCPA §1726(3) as standby guardian of an infant whose authority becomes effective upon the happening of an event specified in the order of appointment

BACKGROUND:

In 1992 the legislature enacted SCPA §1726 to allow a parent to nominate a standby guardian who could step into office upon the incapacity or death of the parent.

In 1994 the legislature amended the statute to make it equally applicable to legal guardians, as well as parents.

A standby guardian can be appointed by means of two methods:

1. Petition and Decree, pursuant to SCPA §1726(3)
2. Designation subject to later confirmation, pursuant to SCPA §1726(4)

APPOINTMENT BY PETITION & DECREE:

All the information required for the appointment of a guardian under SCPA §1704 is required, plus the parent must show that she has either “a progressively chronic illness” or an “irreversibly fatal disease”. SCPA §1726(3)(b)(ii)

The petition must also specify whether the standby guardian takes office when the parent becomes incapacitated, when she dies, or when she consents to the guardian's assumption of office. SCPA §1726(3)(b)(i)

When the guardian takes office, the parent retains joint authority with the guardian. SCPA §1726(7)

NOMINATION OF STANDBY GUARDIAN:

Statute permits nomination by a written document rather than a court proceeding
SCPA §1726(4)

This paper must be signed by the parent or legal guardian before two disinterested adult witnesses - SCPA §1726(4)

The appointment/designation may be filed with Surrogate's Court for safekeeping accompanied with any applicable fee and would be released only to the parent, the standby, or other persons directed by the court - SCPA §1726(8)(b)

The filing of the appointment/designation of a standby guardian in the court does not enhance its validity in any way - SCPA §1726(8)

THE STANDBY GUARDIAN CAN BEGIN TO SERVE WHEN:

- The attending doctor produces a determination of incapacity (definition found at SCPA §1726(1)(d))
- A determination of debilitation with the parent's consent (definition found at SCPA §1726(1)(c))

NOTE: these statements must be in writing, and must describe the parent's physical condition and prognosis.

- The standby guardian can petition for appointment on notice to the parent - SCPA §1726(5)

The standby guardian may act as guardian immediately upon the occurrence of one of these events, but if he/she fails to file a petition within sixty (60) days, his/her authority will cease.

- May also commence to serve if the parent consents - SCPA §1726(3)(e)(iii)

The parent has to sign the consent in the presence of two disinterested witnesses. The standby guardian has to file the written consent in the court within ninety (90) days.

TERMINATION OR REVOCATION:

If the parent recovers, the court may terminate the guardianship - SCPA §1726(3)(d)(iii)

A parent may revoke her designation, either by informing the standby guardian or, if the petition has been filed, by filing a written revocation in the court - SCPA §1726(4)(f); (3)(f)(g)

The court may rescind its decree appointing the standby guardian before he/she begins to serve if it finds that the appointment no longer serves the child's best interests - SCPA §1726 (3)(d)(iii)
