

First Day for the New Court Officer Class

Tuesday, September 7, 2021

Court Officers Academy, Castle-On Hudson, New York

On Tuesday, September 7, 2021, 61 new Court Officer Recruits arrived for their first day at the Court Officers Academy in Castle-On-Hudson. They will begin their four-month training period as they work to become New York State Court Officers.

Joseph Baccellieri, Chief of Training addresses the new recruits

The rigorous, four-month basic training regimen for Court Officer-Trainees includes classroom instruction on criminal law, civil law, family law, constitutional law, and arrest procedures, along with training in such areas as intermediary weapons including baton, pepper spray and firearms; proper use of force; first aid, CPR, basic life support; crowd control; tactical communications; domestic violence awareness and mandatory reporting obligations.

Upon completion of their training, the officers will be primarily deployed, to the 3rd-8th Judicial Districts.
